

Members

1. The Society will only collect data from Members to enable the society to fulfil the terms of membership and to keep members informed about the activities of the society.
2. In normal course the only details held about members will be name, address, telephone number, e mail address, the amount paid in subscriptions, payment method and date of payment.
3. Members' details will be processed fairly and lawfully in order to satisfy the agreement entered with them on their admittance to membership.
4. Members' details are made available to all other members of the society for the following purposes:
 - to enable circulation of newsletters and notices of particular upcoming events.
 - to enable members in general, and directors, events organisers and committee members in particular, to contact other members quickly and easily to ensure that everyone has the opportunity to participate in the society's activities should they so wish.
5. Member's details will not be passed on to third parties or used for any marketing purposes outside the Funtington Players.
6. Members details will be kept safely and securely.
7. Members have the ability to opt out of communications at any time, although the society needs to be able to fulfil its contract with members and to meet the minimum legal requirements.
8. When members leave the society they have a "right to be forgotten". However this right does not over-ride the legal obligation on the society to retain financial records for 6 years.
9. The society will respond to any requests from members wishing to know what information the society holds about them and why.

Audience

10. The Society, through the ticketing agent TicketSource, will only collect data from customers to fulfil the terms of the contract with them.
11. Where customers have indicated that they are happy to hear about future productions, their names will be entered on a database holding name, address, e mail and shows attended.
12. Customers' details will be processed fairly and lawfully and will be kept safely and securely. They will not be passed on to third parties or used for any marketing purposes outside the Funtington Players.
13. Customers have the ability to opt out of communications at any time.
14. The society will respond to any requests from customers wishing to know what information the society holds about them and why.